FIERCE BATTLE CONTINUES AROUND VERDUN; FRENCH DRAW BACK ON THEIR WINGS

Attack After Attack Has Been Made on French Lines Following Terrible Bombardment For Several Days — Enemy Has Not Been Able to Break French Lines—French Gains Reply to Germans Shell for Shell, and Casualties on Both Sides Are Described as Very Great.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire) PARIS, Feb. 24.—The Temp, in its military review, estimates that the Germans have lost 100,000 men since the first attack from their front where the attack is fiercest north of Verdun—that is over a line one mile wide, between Chateau-Thierry and the village of Vaux.

The review concludes that the operations are not necessarily preliminary to an attempt to capture Verdun, but comprise an attack on a wide part of the front, and that the surprise element has been lost.

The review also states that the reserves are still held within the first line works while there are three other lines held by the Germans, who are steadily advancing and are more elaborate in their nature than the first line as work on them could be done at leisure, without the workers being within the line of fire.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—Inspired by the presence of their emperor and directed by Crown Prince Frederick William, the German troops are encamped on the western bank of the river on the front extending around the fortress of Verdun. Attack has been suspended, and the French gains reply to the Germans shell for shell, and casualties on both sides are described as very great.

While the Germans have not been able to break through, they have made numerous onslaughts by the infantry, to break the French lines, nevertheless the French stand their ground.

The French guns have answered the German attacks, and the castles on both sides are very great.

The official record describes the German force as piled with German and Austrian ships.

On the other hand, it is believed that the Germans are pursuing the tactics of allowing the enemy to make enormous sacrifices to themselves.

On the western bank, the French have been compelled to withdraw south of Ornes and behind the town of Sammernix, six miles north of the fortress.

German Force Fighting.—Only between Moulaincourt and the island of Chateau-Thierry has been any diminution in the intensity of the fighting, with British, French and Sammernix, the two northernmost sections of the north and northeast of Beauvois.

From the Meuse eastward to Froesney, the Germans are forcing the lightning, seemingly regardless of life and limb.

The French guns have answered the German attacks, and the castles on both sides are very great.

The official record describes the German force as piled with German and Austrian ships.

On the eastern front, the Germans have been unable to break through, and the French have been unable to capture a party which attempted to capture a French town.

British Are Also Busy.—On their end of the line, near Lille, the British have captured and occupied the crater and also dominated the German trench near Frelinghien.

On the Russian front, from the Black Sea to the French frontier, have been engagements at various points, but no great results have been attained.

Petrograd reports that the Russians are unable to successfully press back the Turks.

The usual amity between the Allies and the Central Powers.

A French air squadron has dropped a large number of bombs on the outside of the city of Verdun.

Fortunately, however, says the Times, the bombs have become scattered and are usually safe and secure, and are in agreement with considerable satisfaction.

The Times' correspondent at Paris says that the Germans have been forced to attack Verdun. He expects that the Germans will be beaten.

It is presumed here that the Germans are seeking to capture Verdun at about the time of the Turkish defeat in Armenia, which sealed the fate of the Ottoman Empire.

French Are Confident.—The Times says it has information that the French are now more than usually confident and serene, and are in agreement with considerable satisfaction.

The Times' correspondent in Berlin says that the Germans are attempting to capture Verdun, and that the Germans are attacking the castles on both sides.

The French guns have answered the German attacks, and the castles on both sides are very great.

The official record describes the German force as piled with German and Austrian ships.

On the eastern front, the Germans have been unable to break through, and the French have been unable to capture a party which attempted to capture a French town.

AMENDMENT TO SCHOOL ACT TO BE REPEALED

This is Suggestion Made by Senator Choquette in the Senate Debate

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire) OTTAWA, Feb. 24.—That unclaimed balances in Canadian banks, turned over to the patriotic fund were proposed to the Senate by Senator Choquette, chairman of the finance committee, who had made an examination of the book on unclaimed balances, which he had been deposited in the bank.

It was argued that $20,000 which had been deposited in the bank was waiting for cheque and drafts which had never been cashed.

At the suggestion of Senator Choquette, the Patriotic Fund, which had been established to help the war effort, was to be used to increase the amount of money available for the war.

The movement has the endorsement of the Canadian government, such as Lieutenant Governor MacKenzie, Minister of Finance Frank Cochrane, Minister of War Frank MacKenzie, Minister of Railways, Mr. J. A. M. MacKenzie, Minister of Agriculture, Mr. J. A. M. MacKenzie, Minister of Education, Mr. J. A. M. MacKenzie, Minister of Agriculture.

The movement has the endorsement of the Canadian government, such as Lieutenant Governor MacKenzie, Minister of Finance Frank Cochrane, Minister of War Frank MacKenzie, Minister of Railways, Mr. J. A. M. MacKenzie, Minister of Agriculture, Mr. J. A. M. MacKenzie, Minister of Education, Mr. J. A. M. MacKenzie, Minister of Agriculture.

Premier Scott said that the government proposes to confine the movement to the Patriotic Fund.

According to the Bank Act, after the lapse of a number of years, unclaimed balances are to be turned over to the government by the banks.

Mr. Choquette said that the government proposes to confine the movement to the Patriotic Fund.

Premier Scott said that the government proposes to confine the movement to the Patriotic Fund.

Mr. Choquette replied that the banks now were confiscating the property of the people, and that the loss of the money at the rate of seven and one-half per cent.

The finance minister was asked if he could take the unclaimed balances and turn them over to the government.

made a contentious issue of, claimed that it altered the law in view of the desire of the Legislature to have that was for the courts and not the legislature.

Judgment Given in Error.

Just recently Judge McLean informed President Wilson that the amendment was given in error and that when he gave his opinion he had not known that McLean and Newlands had already voted in favor of the act as it then stood.

In view of the fact that there is now no question of the validity of the amendment and that it is unknown to certain people, I propose that it be repealed," added the president.

Mr. Scott further pointed out that just recently the Board of Education Catholic separate schools in the province and the Protestant schools.

Before closing the president appealed to the House to cut out so that the bill would not be introduced again and the danger the committee was in, and to do more than was possible to help to forget past trouble between Catholics and Protestants. The speech was received with hearty three hours' right session.

At the right session of the House, Captain Leader, Woodstock, took up the debate on the school question. He complained that no notice had been given of the introduction of the amendment which was to be withdrawn. He defended Mr. McLean in the argument that all the cursing and bad language which had been used in the debate in regard to Mr. McLean did not frighten the opposition at all. He went on to retort that the opposition had lied to Mr. Scott interrupted to say that the last speech of Mr. Scott was a lie. Willoughby retorted that Laurier had been a liar and that he had colluded with him, and McLean, and said that the result was that the government of MacKenzie and Laurier had accepted the Willoughby report to accept Judas. The judge had no right to write it. The judgment was also declared for itself, and the opposition was given a majority of the public opinion which forced the proposal to be withdrawn.

not McLean's letter. The debate was adjourned.

Shortly before midnight, Mr. Willoughby presented to the House the name of the author of the letter which will be able to give information regarding bribery and graft charges. He takes the name of the source to reveal these witnesses.

STIRRING STORY OF FIGHT IN THE AIR

Milne via Paris, Feb. 25.—Doubtless now much pleased of the raid carried out Friday by an Italian airman, who has been reported to have been eminently successful chiefly on account of the heroism of Captain Salomon, the Italian machine gunner four men. The last night he fought his way through the enemy aircraft in order to allow the other Italian machines to accomplish their mission. Captain Salomon attacked seven German planes and in the battles which ensued two of his companions were killed and he was wounded.

Baldini raised on the Italian aeroplane to the rank of captain after he was killed. The pilot remained alone with his machine gun, continuing to hinder the manipulation of the levers, that of Colonel Jarrett living across the field. The Italian machine gunner, who was wounded, was able to blow the blood from his eye, for he was wounded in the eye. Captain Salomon managed to move the body and that of another man, so that he could be buried. The Italian machine gunner, who had delayed the pursuers to enable his comrades to escape, reached his goal, having landed at Paternoster, and was taken from his machine in a fallen condition. General Victor Emmanuel has awarded him the medal for valor.

THE BIG THING NOW IN THE $7,000 CAMPAIGN IS THE EXTRA VOTE OFFER

Candidates May Secure Subscriptions Anywhere—Not Restricted As To Locality In Which They May Work

THE BIG THING NOW IS THE EXTRA VOTE OFFER, AND THIS OFFER WILL BE MADE DURING THE CAMPAIGN.

If you are figuring on offering the campaign to the public at the proper time, it will wait until the close of the campaign. Close your letters by doing so.

EVEN DOLLARS WITH SUBSCRIPTIONS WORTH A LARGER FRACTION MORE

Subscriptions will be accepted after March 15, but there is one answer to the question: "When shall I do my big campaign?"

The answer is: "Before the close of March." The biggest of vote offers will close two weeks from now, materialized in the form of subscriptions to be concentrated.

The offer of candidates from now until that time should be their maximum efforts.

What does this Vote Offer mean?

It means that YOU GET, INSTANTLY, 2,000 EXTRA VOTES FOR YOUR CANDIDATE, AND 20,000 OF SUBSCRIPTIONS TURNED IN.

This vote offer affords 15,000 extra votes, and 20,000 additional subscriptions turned in by any candidate who enters the Campaign. It allows on every additional voter's worth of subscriptions to be turned in, and not make any difference in what amount of extra votes you can add to the campaign department. Send the subscription in before the expiration date of the vote offer, the campaign department will cover all expenses, and will not cover the extra votes due you for the regular vote schedule. This is the most valuable offer ever made, and will be made during the entire campaign.

Where to Get Subscriptions,

Candidates may secure subscritions anywhere. You are not restricted to the locality in which you work.

New and Old Subscribers

If you are a subscriber who was not taking the paper the day the Campaign was announced, you can still take the paper on the day the Campaign was started, and receive the benefit of the guidance.

Never before in the history of the world have the labors of farmers been repaid so much greater results, and greater value, than ever before. It has been a time when they were more fully appreciated, and when the people and of better advantage to the Empire.

The conclusion of the Great War in which the Empire, of which we are a part, was involved, and which occupies to a large extent the attention of all who are in any way interested in the future, has ever widening circles, bring before us the unique in the history of wars, and should cause us to measure our strength, and in which we can assist in bringing the war to a successful conclusion.

Since your last session, the people of Alberta have adopted the provisions of the Direct Legislation Act, passed by a large majority in the House of Commons, to regulate liquor traffic within the boundaries of the province, and in which we can assist in bringing the war to a successful conclusion.

For many years there has been a growing feeling that the equality of the sexes is a fundamental right, and that the women, who perhaps in a special degree in recent years, have suffered from the omission, put up with the hardships.

The public demand for the last few years has been to have you, as well as the estimates for the amount of money to be spent on roads during the coming year, all prepared with due regard to economy and the best mode of the public service.

The Legislative Assembly:

I now leave you to the business of the campaign, but assure you that your deliberations will be directly guided to the best interests and welfare of the province.

In addition to the regular rules allowed on Old and New subscriptions as shown in the voting schedule, we make the following changes:

Sixty-five thousand extra votes will be given to every candidate who sends or brings $22.00 worth of subscriptions to this office on or before 1 p.m., Saturday, March 11, 1912.

Old and old subscriptions are POSITIVELY worth more votes during this period than they will be at any other time during the campaign.

The larger the amount you send in during this period the larger your extra ballot will be. For example: For $22.00 extra you receive 15,000 extra votes.

Do not hold back your subscriptions until you have secured the required amount. We will accept them when we will, and when we will, we will send you voting ballot to cover the various payment periods, so you will always receive a full amount of the money turned in for you will be kept in this office, and after the offer closes we will mail you one separate voting ballot covering the regular amount sent you.

ALL REMITTANCES PLACED IN THE MAIL, ADDRESSED TO THE CAMPAIGN DEPARTMENT, ON OR BEFORE 10 P. M., SATURDAY, MARCH 11, 1912, WILL BE ACCEPTED AND COUNTED ON THE SPOT.

REMEMBER THE CAMPAIGN DOES NOT CLOSE UNTIL APRIL 15, 1912.

Speech From Throne

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

Hon. Mr. Speaker, I welcome you to the second Session of the Third Legislature of the Province of Alberta.

It is to me a source of gratification to see the opportunity of bidding you welcome at the opening of a Session, is at a time when the people of Alberta are taking the harvested harvest which has been the result of the labor of the people under the guidance.

Never before in the history of the world have the labors of farmers been repaid so much greater results, and greater value, than ever before. It has been a time when they were more fully appreciated, and when the people and of better advantage to the Empire.

The conclusion of the Great War in which the Empire, of which we are a part, was involved, and which occupies to a large extent the attention of all who are in any way interested in the future, has ever widening circles, bring before us the unique in the history of wars, and should cause us to measure our strength, and in which we can assist in bringing the war to a successful conclusion.

The publication of the Great War in which the Empire, of which we are a part, was involved, and which occupies to a large extent the attention of all who are in any way interested in the future, has ever widening circles, bring before us the unique in the history of wars, and should cause us to measure our strength, and in which we can assist in bringing the war to a successful conclusion.

The time that has already elapsed has brought to the attention of enormous numbers of people engaged in the same, the way in which the Empire, of which we are a part, was involved, and which occupies to a large extent the attention of all who are in any way interested in the future, has ever widening circles, bring before us the unique in the history of wars, and should cause us to measure our strength, and in which we can assist in bringing the war to a successful conclusion.

BATTALIONS IN CITY TO JOIN IN MONSTER PARADE

On Red Cross Day, Feb. 20, All Battalions Will Appear in Red Cross Parade

A prominent feature of Red Cross Day, February 20th, will be a monster parade in the city, in which all the battalions gathered in the march. From the hour the Red Cross Parade begins, military men have expressed their interest in the plan, and their willingness to help in its execution.

This will be the first parade in which the battalions will meet together, and few people should be left in the city when the sound of bugles heralds the appearance of the procession of gallant officers and khaki clad soldiers.

The 1st Battalion is under orders to march from England. Other battalions will follow. These will be the first and last opportunity for these fighting men together.

Starting from 9th Street (Kinzie) the battalions will march along Jasper Avenue, over the high level bridge to Whyte Avenue, on Whyte Avenue in 9th street, over the low level bridge to 10th Street, over the high level bridge to 11th Street, then over the low level bridge to 12th Street, then over the high level bridge to 13th Street, then over the low level bridge to 14th Street, then over the The highly organized body of women subjects them to a series of nervous apprehension which no man can ever experience.

The public, in general, are taking the matter very seriously. A number of women are taking the matter very seriously.

Dr. Pierce's prediction is that the public will take the matter very seriously.

He has a very strong case.
